Some refer to them as games and many others like mobile games. Some also call play apps. We do not judge. We have already a list for the best Android games and the best free Android games. You can find links to those just below this paragraph. So what will we do with this list? It's quite simple, really. We wanted to highlight some excellent games that they would simply not work on any platform. All these games take an excellent advantage of things that only phones. No other game platform has a touch screen and an accelerometer and Bluetooth, GPS and the possibility of playing in two different guidelines. Some developers simply take advantage of these things better than others. Here are the best play apps for Android! Haltrick Studios is a developer on Google Play. They have some apps for more popular mobile games and fun outside. Their collection includes classics like Ninja fruit and Jetpack Joyride along with others like Dan The Man and Raskuls (in Beta as of this writing). These games represent some of the most popular in their kind. Fruit Ninja is classic Arcade and Jetpack Joyride is the classic infinite runner. Dan man is a decent mobile runner / fighter. These games all have simple, fast mechanics and serve as excellent time murderers. Their new game, Booster Raiders, is still under construction, but it seems that it will adapt to the right in the Halfbrick lineup. Price: $ 3.99 and $ 4.99 respectively, with a valley of $ 1.95 optional dlcnument is one of the most iconic franchises for mobile game app. The first headers returned with his M.C. Escher style puzzle, simple mechanics and funny graphics. The second continues that tradition. Both games have the same basic game. Twisting and moving levels around to open new paths. Both games are a bit short, but this is their only problem, really. Both are also single pay games without purchases or advertisements in the app. The first Monument Valley has a bit of DLC, though. Also Designer leader of these games also made Florence, an interesting game of life slice. Mekorama is another excellent mobile game in this genre. This is also available for Google Play Pass subscribers for free. Price: free to play / Varies Nintendo hit the ground running in the mobile space in style. They have some noteworthy note Game titles. Include the fire-fighting heroes, the crossing of the animals: the pocket field and the Super Mario race. The animal crossing and the fire emblem are freemium titles. Super Mario Run is a premium title with a price tag of $ 9.99. It is much better than its rating rating would have believed and is definitely among the best placable platforms available. Fire Emblem Heroes and crossing animal: the pocket field is among the first in their respective genres. Dragalia Lost was also launched in September 2018 and is quite good. We are legitimately excited to see what Nintendo does after the phone. Noodlecake Studios is a mobile game developer on Google Play. They have a lot of games. This includes funny puzzles such as Lumino City and Framed 1 and 2 Together with a shooter like Delta Island. Arcade Sports Games Like their Super Stickman Golf Series and their pumped: BMX series and many others. Let's not forget the high and Odyssey high adventure, their most popular games along with farm punks, the newest title of the studio. The NodetCake Studios games are generally quite interesting and unique, even among games in the same kind. We have their collection connected to the button if you want to see their things. PokÁ © Mon Go (and similar games) is a uniquely mobile game. Requires your GPS for in-game navigation, your camera for capture sequences and Bluetooth if you buy the optional accessory. Basically go to wander the real world to capture PokÁ © Mon, turn the gyms, conduct RAID battles with other trainers and collect PokÁ © stops. This is not a game that you can experiment with any other platform apart from the cell phone unless you fooled a lot. There are also other game apps in Real-World AR genre, including the world Jurassic Alive and The Walking Dead: our world. Niantica has also recently launched Harry Potter Wizard, combined, a game similar to Pokemon go but set in the Harry Potter universe. Rayark is a developer on Google Play with probably the best rhythm games on any mobile device. The collection of him includes Citus, Cytus II, Sdoica, Deemo, Vooez and Mandora. The last game is Cytus II. Games include the controls of the fluid, colored rhythm game with competence with captivating songs and lots of free content. Many of them include permanent DLC as in-app purchases with more songs in case you cross the plot line too quickly. Rayark is fundamentally the whole kind of rhythm on mobile phone with few good competitors. Rayark also released Soul of Eden, a mobile online combat game. It's not a rhythmic game but it's still good enough. Finally, Cytus II is available for free via Google Play Pass if you use it. The room was one of the first truly good furniture puzzle games. The room: the old sins, launched in 2018, showed us that the developers still had their chops. These are wonderful games with funny puzzles, easy controls and a bit of the Arcan. Most games include Google Play games support, a group of puzzles, excellent graphics and subsequent installments include more terminations. There are four total games in the series. Range from $ 1.99 for the room for $ 4.99 for the room: old sins. None of these have advertising or other additional in-app purchases. The room helped make the mobile game better and still does it today. Price: free / varies / free for playsquare enix dove in the mobile landscape much before most of their competitors. They brought a group of their old classic consoles, but also launched a variety of made-for-mobile games that are truly exceptional. Some of the titles include Final Fantasy Brave Exvius, CountryStrike Dissidia Final Fantasy Opera Omnia (the states that one three times fast), and many others. They also have a healthy number of gaming ports from other consoles, like most of the first final fantasy games and more recent titles like life is strange. Even in reality we really like Bethesda Fallout Refuge and BlizzardÁ © Á, ~ hearth, despite their age. Supercell is another developer of some very popular mobile games apps. Theirs Include Clash Royale, Clash of Clans, Brawl Stars, and Boom Beach. They have other titles, like the stars of the fight, as well. These games are light, fluffy, simple and enjoyable. Also, you can play for years if you have patience for this. Clan clash and Beach Beach are real-time strategic elements. Clash Royale is a card dueling game as the Blizzard hearth, and the fight stars are a mix between a fighter and a moba. They are all freemium games and all have tons of active players for multiplayer activities. Zynga has a series of online multiplayer games with simple themes. They include words with friends (similar to Scrabble), chess with friends, crossword puzzle with friends and draws something (similar to Cabates). These games take classic games or party games. Most people look like playing. The mechanics are simple and games use shifts and not in real time. So someone can send a move and you can get to it when you want instead to pay attention all the time. They are Freemium games, but they are usually rather funny.
