I like the Indian railway and I don't understand why the elderly and women receive concessions from 40 or 50% even if many of them could be super rich and can afford the rate, especially when the rail is to subsidize the rate. Best regards I was completely disappointed for the quality of the cabin and the toilets were disgusting and dirty. Even if there was an assistant on board, I couldn't barely do anything. I traveled all over the world in some of the luxurious trains, even in the poorest countries and the trains were clean and full of services and first class on board services.imahesh patel informative but not easy to find what we want. Perhaps more user friendly for older people. The developer, SmartApps India, indicated that app's privacy practices may include data management as described below.
